

Johnny Blackburn

SPEAKER | COACH | AUTHOR | FACILITATOR

Combining the POWER of physicality with authentic communication & mindfulness.

Do you command trust & inspire openness & greatness in your professional colleagues, clients, strangers or intimates without even speaking? When you do speak: one-on-one, in a meeting, or on stage how open, clear & empowering is your presence?

The way we move our bodies, focus on work, sit in a meeting, speak, enter a room, or listen in conversation is the true source of our power & effectiveness. Our ability to lead, impact, innovate, communicate, relate, be productive & thrive at work, with others & throughout our lives depends on our presence.

Presence Keynote Speech

(1 hour keynote)

What Audiences Learn & Experience:

Our presence impacts every aspect of your professional & personal life. Our focus, clarity & productivity depend on the mindfulness element of our presence. Interpersonally, our presence is the most important ingredient in client relations, rapport in conversation & leadership. People trust us based on the authentic alignment of our words, emotions, & body language. Utilizing touching stories, humor, depth, practical relevant content & experiential exercises, audiences love this unique engaging, inspiring & educational style. Learn where you already embody presence with your work & with others as well as where your lack of presence inhibits greater individual & organizational productivity, cohesion & thriving.

Presence Training
